

Dear FCC Commissioners & Staff:

My name is Brian Moore and I have been a customer of IGLOU, a local Louisville ISP, for 10 years. When BellSouth offered DSL earlier this year, I waited until DSL was offered by the ISP I knew and trusted. Please continue to encourage competition and allow local ISPs to offer DSL service. I prefer to stick with an ISP I've trusted for 10 years. I do not want my DSL service from BellSouth!

Sincerely,

Brian Moore
